

Report on “Understanding Qualitative Research and Data collection ” Workshop
Saturday 28th September 2019
Melaka-Manipal Medical College, Melaka

This was a one day workshop requested by the College for lecturers who were interested in qualitative research. Thus topics covered include an overview of the different qualitative designs, and data collection technique particularly interviewing. Professor Dr Khatijah Lim Abdullah from University of Malaya introduce qualitative research and discussed on how one determine the appropriate qualitative design to use to answer the research questions and. Associate Professor Dr Mohammed Sharim bin Ab Karim from University Putra Malaysia went on to talk on how to how to prepare an interview guide and how to conduct in depth interview and focus group discussions. A total of 18 participants attended the workshop. Attached photos and list of attendance.

Prepared by :
Khatijah Lim Abdullah